Prof. John Duxbury.

Few men have so rapidly taken front rank in the art and practice of elo-cation as Prof. John Duxbury of Vic-toria university, Manchester, Eng. In the last seven or eight years he has the last seven or eight years he has achieved a popularity as a public reciter second to none. This is in part accounted for by the fact that, avoiding the slavish imitation of other successful ejecutionists, he has struck out a distinctive line for himself and followed it with uniformly satisfactory has the most part of the second of t hesults. He is remarkably successful in the vivid representation of historic scenes and personages, and he never fails to leave a distinctively religious impression on the minds of his audi-

Vaudeville at the Broadway Theater Next Week.

Bit up straight and take notice that Norwich will see during the week of April 12th some of the finest vande-ville that has been before the public April 12th some of the finest vandeville that has been before the public in this city in many months. The Breadway theater has every advantage in giving these fine productions. Its stage size, its equipment for lighting, its breadth of curtain, all will help to make these acts satisfactorily put on.
The people of Norwich will be pleased to hear that the Willard's Temple of finals is to be one of the many acts at the Broadway theater next week which is said to be the greatest music act in the world.

If you are feeling blue come and

BREED THEATER.

"The Bramah Diamond" Big Oriental Moving Picture.

The Breed theater was well filled with an attentive audience to witness the aplendid bill offered. One of the most interesting numbers of the bill being The Bramsh Dismond, a story gich in oriental customs, deather with the theft of the diamend from the foreigned of an idol, and the subse-quent genech for it, followed by the discovery of it in the possession of a European tourist. Other interesting films that are at-

Other interesting films that are attracting many to this theater of high class attractions are Love and Law, Wulture Hunting in Africa, Little Cysil the Runaway, Why They Fell Out, and Wile's Ma.

Madame Marelle rather outshines benefit in the number selected for this week's high grade song, and the title Walting, seems indicative of the audience. a ripple of animated expectation seems to pass over the house, and when the song is finished they burst into anplause that is most gratifying to the madame.

Mr. Wilham Delaney is winning much popular favor or his fine rendering of the sweet little song, if You Level Me as I Love You.

2844 BOY'S RUSSIAN SUIT.

Paris Pattern No. 2844 - All Seams Allowed.

Natural colored or light tan linen may be used with good effect for this simple but jaunty little suit for the small boy. The deep band which trims the full blouse in yoke effect, extending down the right side of the front, is of tobacco-brown linen, the belt being of similar linen, slipped through narrow straps at the under-arm seams. The featening is held in place by small flat glit buttons. The cuffs on the moderately full sleeves are of the linen, matching the suit in color, though the contrasting shade of linen may be used if desired. The full knickerbockers are gathered into the knees by elastic, run through the hem-casing. Another pretty development is to make the suit of desired blue linen, with bands of navy blue linen, trimming the fastening with white pearl or lisen-covered buttons. The pattern is in four sizes—2 to 5 years. For a boy of 4 years the suit requires 33; yards of material 27 inches wide, 2½ yards 36 inches wide or 1% yards 54 inches wide; as flustrated, 3, yard of contrasting material 20 or more inches wide.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.
Order through the Builetin Company, Pattern Dept. Norwich, Conn.
